Amended Motion A: Motion to endorse the report of the Working Group on Communication in the Curriculum and its recommendation to institute a Program in Writing and Communication.

Approved November 30, 2011

Motion B: Motion to establish a graduation requirement, for all undergraduates matriculating in Fall 2012 and thereafter, of one three-hour First-year Writing-Intensive Seminar (FWS).

Approved November 30, 2011

Motion C: Motion to eliminate, beginning Fall Semester 2012, for undergraduate students matriculating in Fall 2012 and thereafter, the existing Communication (COMM) 103 requirement for graduation.

Approved November 30, 2011

Amended Motion D: Motion to recommend the creation of the Center for Written, Oral, and Visual Communication that will begin operations in 2012 to support undergraduates and graduate students, as well as faculty who teach writing and communication-intensive courses.

Approved November 30, 2011

Motion E: Motion to recommend that a curricular requirement for upper-level communication in the disciplines will be specified and voted on by the Faculty Senate in Fall 2014 after appropriate discussion and development by faculty and provision for adequate funding, for implementation beginning Fall 2015.

Approved November 30, 2011