Motion to prescribe the rotation of the Senate seat

Shared by the professional schools

In section 2 of the Constitution, after:

“One member is to be, and elected by, faculty holding tenured or tenure-track appointments in the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Business, the Shepherd School of Music, or the School of Architecture.”

Add:

“...Eligibility for the seat shall rotate sequentially through the three schools, with an initial order of the Shepherd School of Music, the School of Architecture, and Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Business. Subsequently, the cycle shall repeat. The full term for this seat shall be one year.

Also

In section 3 of the Constitution, after:

“Senate terms will normally be for three years, but may occasionally be adjusted to rebalance the staggering of terms.”

add:

“The seat that rotates between the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Business, the Shepherd School of Music, or the School of Architecture shall have a term of one year.”

January 19, 2011: The Senate approves the changes to the Constitution.