Note: The distribution system was revised Spring 2016 to require three courses of three credit hours in each of the three groups. Please see the revised document.

TRANSFER COURSES FOR DISTRIBUTION CREDIT
REVISION TO THE 2016-2017 GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

PROPOSED BY THE UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE FOR THE UNDERGRADUATE CURRICULUM (CUC)
APPROVED BY THE FACULTY SENATE, FEBRUARY 24, 2016

“Each student is required to complete at least 4 courses of designated distribution courses of at least three credit hours each in each of Groups 1, 11, and 111. The 4 courses in each group must include courses in at least two departments in that group. For the purpose of this rule, a course taken at another institution and transferred to Rice as an equivalent distribution course will be counted as one of these courses provided that the course earns at least 2.5 credit hours.”
