Endowment update

Endowment Market Value 1989-2013

Fiscal Years ended June 30

Endowment continues to recover from 2008 losses…

… but endowment spending remains at high end of target range

Endowment Spending

FY 2001-2013 is actual.
FY 2014 is estimated.
Revenue growth to support the budget
Federal deficit and debt results in budget impasse and sequestration:

- Research grants:
  - 10 percent reduction in some existing NIH awards
  - NSF may make 1,000 fewer new awards
- Impact on research, student aid and other federal resources may last for a decade or more
Business processes: Finding efficiencies

- Going electronic
  - Research system (eRA): rolls out April 8
  - Time cards: over 12 percent now electronic
  - Degree audit*
  - Labor redistribution*

- Smarter purchasing

• 2013 is the 13th year in a row that we present the Elizabeth Gillis Award to a Rice staff member.

• “In recognition of her dedication, the Board of Trustees of Rice University establishes the Elizabeth Gillis Award for Exemplary Service to Rice University, to annually recognize the outstanding achievements and services by a staff member in support of the mission of the University. Recipients shall, like the woman for whom the award is named, show consistently outstanding performance and embody an exceptional attitude of service.”

  » Resolution by the Board of Trustees, May 2000
